The American Civil War Museum of Ohio (ACWMO) is a 501 (c) (3) nonprofit organization formed to satisfy our community's need for a unique educational museum by collecting, preserving, and interpreting the American Civil War and its impact on the current generation of American people.

The ACWMO serves as an important tourist and cultural element in an overall regeneration program for Tiffin, Ohio.

ACWMO makes a significant contribution to the cultural infrastructure of Tiffin, in conjunction with the Ritz Theatre, Heidelberg University, Tiffin University and many others. A critical mass of high-quality cultural facilities and services can be a powerful mechanism for attracting a business to invest in and locate to Tiffin. ACWMO makes Tiffin more attractive for its workforce and their families who will live here and helps to support job creation and continued employment.

The museum acts as an attractor for encouraging tourists to visit the other fine attractions in and around Tiffin. Visitors to ACWMO also spend money within the local economy in shops, restaurants, hotels and markets.

Our contribution to the revitalization of downtown Tiffin helps to energize community pride and boost the quality of life for current and future residents of Tiffin.

The museum offers over 10,000 sqft of exhibit and research facilities to engage the visitor. There are nine main exhibit areas within the museum with each area having its own educational learning center. These learning centers include digital audio listening centers, educational handouts and hands on activities. A gift shop, visitor lounge, research library, theatre with 20 minute video on Ohio's Role in the Civil War and large presentation room add to the list of things to do.

Your sponsoring membership enables the American Civil War Museum of Ohio to bring educational programs and opportunities to both the children and adults of northwestern Ohio.
